HME Appoints John Kowalski as Pro Audio Sales Manager

San Diego, CA — HME is pleased to announce today the appointment of John Kowalski as Pro Audio Sales Manager. In this role, Kowalski will oversee all sales activities for HME's Professional Audio Division which specializes in wireless intercom systems that are currently being sold worldwide for multiple applications.

"John brings to HME vital industry knowledge with over 20 years of experience in the pro audio business," says J. Michael Hughes, General Manager of HME's Pro Audio Division. "We will leverage his expertise to better serve our pro audio customers and continue to expand our customer base."

Prior to joining HME, Kowalski was the Director of Sales for Systems Wireless, Ltd., currently an HME pro audio distributor and a high-end production sound service provider located in Virginia. His extensive sales and service experience has made him a familiar name among wireless and pro sound professionals. Kowalski has designed sound packages for a variety of events and applications for a wide spectrum of clients around the world.

"I'm excited to be a part of HME," says Kowalski. "I look forward to working more closely with some of the most cutting-edge wireless intercom systems in the industry and finding the appropriate clients who would benefit from them."
