

G.R.E.A.T. Grille Group calls on two-way radios from HME Wireless to satisfy hungry sports fans and entertainment seekers

ATLANTA, GA — February 28, 2014 — The G.R.E.A.T. Grille Group is now using two-way radios at all four of its unique, destination-location restaurants. Two of those restaurants are the Jerome Bettis Grille 36 in Pittsburgh, PA, and the Indianapolis Colts Grille in downtown Indy.

With a varied clientele including sports fans and concert goers from nearby venues, tourists, and the business lunch crowd, effective communication is vital to keeping restaurant guests satisfied. The G.R.E.A.T. Grille Group uses two-way radios to enhance communication between managers, host staff, kitchen staff, AV personnel and food runners.

“We get a lot of use out of the radios,” said Adam Bianco, Director of Entertainment at G.R.E.A.T. Grille Group. “I would definitely recommend them to others.”

Bianco noted that the restaurant group has a great relationship with HME Wireless. He was impressed that HME matched a competitor’s price for the two-way radios, and is very satisfied with the performance of his equipment.

“We use them pretty much every day,” he said.

“The G.R.E.A.T. Grille Group has a winning formula for success, and we’re extremely proud to be a part of it,” said Russ Ford, Vice President of HME Wireless.
