CLEAR-COM EXHIBITS AT SSS FOR THE FIRST TIME, PRESENTING THEIR NEW CONSULTANT PORTAL AND LATEST COMMUNICATION SOLUTIONS

- Clear-Com brings 45 years of live performance production communications to this show -

ALAMEDA, USA – JUNE 3, 2015 – Clear-Com®, the leader of wired and wireless communication solutions, exhibits at this year's Stage Set Scenery show for the first-time. As the pioneer of production intercom since 1968, Clear-Com will share its breadth of award-winning communications solutions consisting of digital, analogue and IP intercom technologies, as well as its deep experience in small to large scale intercom deployments to the German live performance market.

As the inventor of the first distributed beltpacks and partyline systems, Clear-Com customers around the world continue to recognize them as the industry-standard for providing high quality professional intercom systems. Clear-Com's digital and analogue partyline intercom systems, including their more advanced digital matrix and expanded offerings of wireless intercom systems, deliver flawless performances on-stage and off-stage.

In addition to exhibiting at this show, Clear-Com will hold individual meetings with local consultants and its German country distributor, Audio-Technica. The one-on-one meetings provide invaluable advice and resources for designing communication systems for the latest set of innovative intercom products. Consultants can begin scheduling 15-minute appointment meetings at the Clear-Com booth (Hall 3.2 Booth 200) by completing this request form: http://bit.ly/1FI1O8l.

During the meeting, Clear-Com will run through its Consultant Portal that includes but not limited to:

- System Design Review, a service that evaluates designs, checking for accuracy and will provide recommendations and direct feedback to ensure systems operate to their full potential;
- Solution Finder, an online collection of design scenarios, challenges and solutions to real-world intercom applications;

- Resource Library, a centralized repository of Clear-Com's up-to-date resources including datasheets, user manuals, A&E specs, AutoCAD, Visio files, brochures and much more.
